

Goodnight, Moon

Author: Sharon McKinley (2011)
Source: Sharon McKinley
Formation: Longways duple improper
Music: Specific tune - Goodnight, Moon (Sharon McKinley, August 2011)

- A1
- 1 Balance in to center & out
  - 2 Turn single right (end facing neighbor)
  - 3-4 Neighbor gypsy (right)
  - 5-6 1s half-figure eight down
  - 7-8 2s half-figure up (through 1s, end on the end of a line of four facing down)
  - 9-10 Lines down the hall (6 steps), turn towards neighbor to face up (2 steps)
  - 11-12 Lines up the hall (end in a ring)
  - 13 Circle left ½
  - 14 Partner two-hand turn ½
  - 15-16 Partner draw pousette ½ (cw, ladies backing up)

© Sharon McKinley, 2011

- Notes
- 1 A cool, slow, easy summertime dance for the Baltimore Folk Music Society stalwarts who dance in un-air-conditioned splendor all summer long
  - 2 Words (by Sharon McKinley), for those who like to sing :

Goodnight moon, and goodnight stars
 Goodnight, friends, where'er you are
 Sunset comes, the dark is nigh,
 And so, my friends, we say goodbye.

Do not fear that we must part
 For I hold you in my heart.
 So to bed; sweet dreams, sleep tight,
 And to all we say goodnight.

Goodnight, Moon

Sharon McKinley

D      G      D      A      D      G      Em      A7

Em      G      A      A7      D      G      A7

5

D      A      D      F#m      G      D      Em      A

Bm      F#m      G      A      G      D      Em      A

13